A DARING CROWD.

Opium Smugglers Who Defy Uncle Sam's Officers.

THEY MAKE NO ATTEMPT TO CONCEAL THEIR BUSINESS.

But, on the contrary, boast of their exploits to their friends—The Captain and Two of His Men Interviewed By a Chicago Tribune Reporter—The Former Seems to Have a Charmed Life.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—A special to the Tribune from Sarnia, Ont., tells of the existence of a syndicate of capitalists organized for the purpose of smuggling opium into the United States. Three of the most daring smugglers are now in the village. One is Capt. Harry H. Durant, who had a hand to hand encounter with United States government detectives in a Michigan wilderness last week, and who escaped unharmed from a shower of bullets fired at close range. Another is known as George Rockwell, and the third Charles Weitzel, Capt. Durant's plucky lieutenant.

All of them are young, educated and respected by all who know them, although they are known as the most daring smugglers that ever eluded a revenue officer, and to be agents of a rich syndicate that was organized several years ago for the express purpose of smuggling opium into the United States from the manufacturing at Victoria, B. C. The syndicate has $5,000,000 behind it and is largely controlled by C. J. Joslyn, of Victoria.

The special says: A Tribune reporter, who came over here from Chicago, especially to look up opium smugglers, found Capt. Durant and his friend, Weitzel, living in good style at the Belchamber house, the swell hotel of the town, and had a long talk with them. They have been smuggling opium for the last two years, and have successfully landed hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of the costly drug on the other side without being detected.

But this last consignment they took over was discovered and seized by government detectives, and it came near costing Capt. Durant his life. Four detectives waylaid him in the woods at night, took him at a great disadvantage, and standing not more than ten feet away fired twenty shots at him in rapid succession. But Capt. Durant was, apparently, a charmed life, for he was not hit, and made his escape without trying to kill his assailants or shedding a drop of his own blood.

Joslyn is known among the smugglers as "Boss Harris," and is immensely rich. He makes no effort to conceal the fact that he is a smuggler; on the contrary, brags of it, and entertains his friends with stories of his exploits.

Another active member of the Harris gang operates under the assumed name of Spencer. He attends to shipping the goods from Victoria. A rich San Francisco merchant is said to be prominently identified with the syndicate. A man for many years in the employ of the United States government as an interpreter is another member.

A Toronto Chinaman and "Opium Pete," of San Francisco, comprise the rest of the syndicate. Besides these there are a large number of agents whose duty it is to look after the consignments after they leave Victoria, shoving them from one point to another in the Dominion, transporting them over the border, and then reshipping across the states to California.

Chief among the agents are Capt. Durant and the Weitzel brothers, Charles and George. George Weitzel is the shrewder of the two brothers and is intrusted with large consignments before and after they cross the border. He does not, however, encounter the great personal risk of moving goods from one country into the other, the weight of that responsibility falling on Capt. Durant and Charles Weitzel.

Both of the Weitzel boys are now in Sarnia, and, together with Capt. Durant, are awaiting instructions from "Boss Harris," who has been informed by telegraph of the seizure of his goods last week. George Weitzel has always been known here as George Rockwell, and there are not half a dozen persons in the village who know that he and "Handsome Charley" are brothers.

Remarkable Stand of a School Board. GRAND FORK, Dak., Dec. 22.—The school board at East Grand Forks took a remarkable stand Thursday morning in ordering the schools closed until the city council shall permanently remove the houses of ill-repute. Tuesday morning some of the disreputable women got drunk and used obscene language to young girls and boys. Wednesday night the mothers of children held a meeting and decided to keep their children at home if some decisive action was not taken by the authorities.

Alice Hastings' Will.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The will of Alice Hastings, the actress, has been filed for probate. The only heirs and next of kin are the mother and brother of the testatrix, who reside in Detroit, Mich. The will provides that after the payment of all just debts and expenses the residue of her estate shall be given to her dear friend Rollin Reed.

Kilrain and Sullivan Will Fight.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—Representatives of the backers of Jake Kilrain have decided to cover John L. Sullivan's deposit of $5,000 at the New York Clipper office. It is understood that the Police News of this city will be the final stakeholder, and the editor of that paper will give a receipt to Kilrain's backers for the money.

Drunken Man's Neck Broken.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Dec. 22.—James L. Turner, a teamster, got drunk Thursday. In the morning he was found dead at the foot of his kitchen stairs. It is thought that, in attempting to go upstairs, he lost his footing, tumbled to the frozen ground, breaking his neck.

Reprieved for Sixty Days.

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 22.—Governor Zulick granted another reprieve Thursday for sixty days to Firmino Pappago, the Indian, whose execution was fixed for the 21st inst.

BEN. HOPKINS PARDONED

By the President, Owing to the Condition of His Health.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The president has pardoned Ben. Hopkins, now in the Ohio state prison for embezzling funds of the Fidelity National bank, of Cincinnati. In granting this pardon, the president says:

"The condition of this convict's health is such, as appears from an examination which I have set on foot, that the question is presented whether he shall die in prison or at his home. On this presentation, I am willing that he shall spend his few remaining days among his friends regardless of any other consideration connected with the case. And on this ground alone his pardon is granted."

MRS. HARRISON GOING EAST.

She Accepts an Invitation From Messdames Morton and Elkins.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Tribune says: There floated Thursday around the corridors of the Fifth avenue hotel and the Gilsey house, where politicians are wont to assemble, a bit of gossip which nearly took away the breaths of those who have been wasting much of that valuable matter in making and unmaking Gen. Harrison's cabinet.

This was in effect no less than a well developed rumor that Gen. Harrison intended to pay a visit to New York about the middle of next month. The story which went the rounds and lost nothing by frequent repetition, was that Gen. Harrison had accepted a long standing invitation to be the guest of Stephen B. Elkins, at his home, No. 46 West Fifty-eighth street.

Friends of Russell Harrison are responsible for giving this story publicity, they saying that the invitation had been extended to the president-elect through the son, who was with Mr. Elkins in Philadelphia a short time after the election.

This rumor sent a crowd of reporters after Mr. Elkins, and to all he positively affirmed that Gen. Harrison did not intend to visit New York, at any rate for some time to come. There is some foundation in this story, however, but in place of Gen. Harrison coming here it is Mrs. Harrison who is to come. She is coming to pay a friendly visit and incidentally place herself in the hands of the dressmakers, milliners, etc., and stock her wardrobe with dresses and bonnets.

While here she will be the guest of Mrs. Elkins and Mrs. Morton. She was invited by Mrs. Morton when the vice president-elect and his wife were in Indianapolis, but Mrs. Elkins' invitation was a prior one, and had been accepted. She will probably leave Indianapolis about January 15.

WHIPPED BY WHITE CAPS.

Joseph Cutlers, of Clayville, Indiana, Beaten Unmercifully.

WARASH, Ind., Dec. 22.—There is much excitement in the vicinity of Clayville by the appearance of a band of White Caps. Joseph Cutlers, who lives near Clayville, was met while on his way home by a crowd of masked men, who, without saying a word, took Cutlers, tied him to a tree, and gave him a fearful beating. Cutlers was bound and gagged. When released, he was very faint. The cappers gave Cutlers to understand that he must make a radical change in his manner of living, and then rode away.

The next night Cutlers was awakened by a dozen masked men, who demanded that he dress and come out of the house. Cutlers declined to obey the summons. The visitors contented themselves by making threats, and then went away. Cutlers is preparing to give them a warm reception on their next visit. He is reported as being a wife beater, and much feeling has been worked up against him.

Pennsylvania Infested.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 22.—It is now definitely settled that a White Cap organization infests this city. Within the past two weeks twenty letters have been sent to parties here, women as well as men, notifying them that if their conduct is not more proper in the future the lash will be applied. These letters were at first taken as a joke, but they have assumed a more serious character of late. The editors of the Herald and of the Sunday World have both received letters. A counter organization is going to be formed to offset the White Caps, and to protect law-abiding citizens.

Inspecting Prisons.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 22.—The Minnesota state board of prison inspectors, composed of A. K. Doe, John P. Morris and Edward Dunn, arrived in this city yesterday. They visited the riverside penitentiary and after inspecting its arrangement left on the limited express for Chicago. The object of the tour is to obtain information in regard to convict labor. Mr. Morris said he thought the board would recommend the system of letting the convict labor out on contract.

Dead of a Miser.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 22.—A Polish farmer named Schilinski of very miserly habits, stole lumber from the fence of a neighbor named McCarthy and with it made a coffin in which he buried in his cellar the dead body of his seven-year-old daughter. McCarthy notified the authorities, who will arrest Schilinski for theft and bury the child in a casket at public expense. The people of the vicinity are much incensed against Schilinski.

A Falling Scaffold.

NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 22.—John Phillips, aged twenty-six years; William Smith, aged thirty, and John Maher, aged twenty, were all probably fatally injured by the falling of scaffolding, upon which they were at work slating the roof of St. Ann's Roman Catholic church, on Seventh street, to-day. The men fell a distance of forty feet, and about a ton of slate fell on them. They were dug out shockingly bruised and injured.

Match Works Burned.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 22.—The Scranton Match company, which was established in this city about one year ago, was burned this morning. Loss $25,000; partly insured. Seventy-five hands are thrown out of employment.

The Fatal Gift of Beauty.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Henry Carlton, alias Handsome Harry, convicted of the murder of Police Officer Brennan, was sentenced by Judge Martine in the court of general sessions to be hanged on Wednesday, February 13.

A SLAUGHTER

Would Be a Better Name for the Battle at Suakim.

THE IMPROVED WEAPONS OF MODERN WARFARE MADE IT SUCH.

Although the Arabs Fought Bravely, They Were Swept Down By Scores By the Machine Guns of the British—England's Position Believed to Have Been Strengthened—News From Stanley.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Thursday's victory gained by 4,900 combined British and Egyptian troops over half their number of Arabs, was rather a slaughter than a battle. The Arabs, led by the dervishes, fought bravely enough, but their inferior arms were no match for the improved weapons of the British force. They were not only bombarded by the forts and ships in the Suakim harbor, but at closer range were swept down by the murderous machine guns.

It is perhaps the first illustration of the destructive effect of that improved weapon in modern warfare. Four hundred Arabs fell before it, while only six of the entire British and Egyptian force were killed. The remnant of the routed Arab force fled to Handoub, some fifteen miles away, which the dervishes have fortified. Inasmuch as the local tribes in the vicinity of Suakim have not joined the Arabs, the mahdi's force will doubtless shortly be driven inland and the Red sea coast made safe.

This will by no means be a reconquest of the Soudan. Lord Salisbury says that the treaty of Paris binds England to maintain the integrity of the dominions of the sultan of Turkey, and that it governs his action. This would demand a reconquest of the Egyptian Soudan, but the British premier is non-committal on the subject of the proposed extent of his operations.

He says that the final struggle with the Arab slave trade must be on the Red sea, and inasmuch as he has been content, since the last fatal attempt at conquest, to hold the sea coast, he will, in view of the serious situation of European affairs, not attempt anything further.

England's Position Strengthened.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—While the general sentiment in England is that the government's position regarding the occupation of Suakim is strengthened by the recent victory over the Arabs, yet it is also made apparent that now the government will not be able to abandon the town. It is felt that the beginning of an aggressive campaign has been made which may lead to a Soudan expedition despite the assurances of Lord Salisbury to the contrary.

The latest reports from Suakim state that the enemy is being reinforced by large numbers from the interior tribes, and an attack may be expected within a day or two in which the Arabs will not only try to recover the position lost yesterday, but that they will attempt to capture the town itself. The Arabs are at a disadvantage in trenches and are known to be fierce fighters in an open field. The correspondents at Suakim think that the enemy will be able to lead to the coming attack double the force in the town, and hot fighting may be expected.

Lord Salisbury, in his speech Thursday, said the government was bound by Mr. Gladstone's promise, to maintain the Red sea ports. A British statesman's first duty is to prevent foreigners from thinking that every change of government must necessarily mean the changing of our foreign policy.

Has the Ripper Changed Tactics?

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The dead body of an unknown woman was found Thursday morning in the Poplar district with an empty phial lying beside it. It was at first supposed that the woman had committed suicide by taking poison, but evidence has been produced to-day at an autopsy which was held, showing that the stomach of the woman contained no poison whatever.

A small cord was found tied around the woman's throat, which, it is claimed, produced strangulation. It is thought death resulted from this cause. The unfortunate woman has not yet been identified, but she was of the same class as those who have been murdered by the so-called Whitechapel fiend. Her body was still warm when it was discovered.

It is thought to be impossible that the woman could have committed suicide in the open thoroughfare where her body was found and it is believed she fell a victim to the miscreant who has murdered, mutilated so many other women near the locality in which this crime occurred, and who seems to have adopted a new way of disposing of his victims.

The Emin Relief Committee.

BERLIN, Dec. 22.—The Emin relief committee announced that after a careful examination of Osman Digna's letters, they have concluded that proof of Emin Pasha's capture has not been established. They will, therefore, start Lieut. Wissmann's expedition for Emin's relief at the earliest possible moment. Dr. Junker declares that Emin's force was armed with Snayder rifles.

The Post says Lieut. Wissmann will endeavor to learn the fate of Emin while en route. In the event of the report of Emin's capture being confirmed, he will attempt to gain possession of the positions of the slave traders by establishing stations at intervals from the coast inland.

At a meeting in London Thursday the council of the English East Africa company, the majority of whom are members of the Emin Relief committee, came to the conclusion that Stanley arrived at Wadelai after Emin had started on the march toward Lado to encounter the mahdis, and that Stanley is still awaiting Emin's return. The council think that Stanley is the white traveler for whom Osman Saleh says he is searching.

Stanley Heard From.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—A Zanzibar dispatch says: Letters dated Stanley Falls, August 29, have been delivered here by Tippoo Tib's men. They state that a letter was received at Stanley Falls from Henry M. Stanley on August 28.

Stanley was then at Bonyala, on the Aruwhimi, where he had arrived on August 17. He had left Emin Pasha eighty-two days before in perfect health, and provided with plenty of food.

Stanley had returned to Bonyala for the loads of stores in charge of his rear guard, and intended to leave ten days later to rejoin Emin. He reported all the whites in the expedition as healthy, and said the expedition wanted nothing.

De Leases' Victims Holding the Bag.

PARIS, Dec. 22.—About seven hundred holders of bonds and shares in the Panama Canal company held a meeting Thursday and decided to forego for the present the payment of the coupons and the redemption of the shares. All present signed documents binding them to subscribe to any fresh issue. At another meeting it was resolved to demand that the necessary measures be taken immediately to safely guard the numerous interests concerned in the canal.

BEATING THE WESTERN UNION.

Scheme by Which the Company Was Successfully Robbed for Months.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—Irregularities which aggregate a considerable sum have just been discovered in the main office of the Western Union Telegraph company here. Three methods were employed to defraud the company, namely: The destruction of copies of telegrams filed here to be sent to other places, the destruction of copies of telegrams received here and the placing upon delivery slips numbers representing fictitious dispatches for which the messengers were paid by the company according to schedule. By the first two mentioned methods the money paid for dispatches was retained and the copies of the dispatches destroyed. By the last named method some of the messengers succeeded in obtaining as high as $25 per week. The receiver who stood in with the boys to the amount of half their profits accruing from the fictitious numbers entered on their slips, vouched for all the returns and as there was no attempt to go behind his vouchers the scheme worked successfully for months. The manager of the company says he will not prosecute those engaged in the swindle. The receiver has been discharged and everything is now working all right.

NO TRUTH IN IT.

The Story of an Attempt to Assassinate General Harrison.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—The Indianapolis correspondent of the Herald telegraphed a dispatch Thursday night to the effect that a well laid plot had been discovered to take the life of Gen. Harrison. A friend of the president-elect discovered the scheme in time to prevent its execution. Every possible effort has been made to conceal the affair, but it leaked out, and now a rigid investigation will be made.

Halford Says It's a Lie.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 22.—Secretary Halford says he had never heard of the alleged attempt on Harrison's life. To publish such a story as the one in circulation, he says, is an infernal outrage. The story is a lie, made up by some one for the sake of a sensation. He declines to even suggest the matter to Harrison because of its absurdity. It would be very offensive to the general, he says, to be subjected to inquiries on such an absurd matter.

IT WAS TOO MUCH.

Gregory's Taunts So Infuriated Davis That He Shot Him.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Dec. 22.—Mr. Davis, who shot and killed Gregory, accompanied by his attorney, William Johnson, arrived in the city Thursday evening, the former going up in Clark county to visit his mother, the latter to Indianapolis. Davis said that Gregory had been boasting of his betrayal of the girl, and had made threats that he would go to Morrisville and kill her for giving him away. After taunting Davis in his own shop he pulled out a flask of liquor, offering it to him, when Davis pulled his revolver and shot him. As stated, the old man says he could do nothing less under the circumstances. Mr. Davis and his attorney will meet here Monday, employ two of the best criminal lawyers in town and go to Leavenworth for trial. The court meets there Monday.

Hayti Holds On.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Dec. 22.—President Legitime continues in power, and a majority of the people recognize his authority. The pacification of the country is considered at hand. Neither the Yantic nor Galena—the United States war ships that sailed a short time ago from New York—has yet arrived. Public opinion supports the government in the matter of the capture of the steamer Haytian Republic. Her seizure is regarded as an eminently legal act. It is held that she was endeavoring to run the blockade when overhauled and made a prize by the Haytian man-of-war.

Samuel Edmund Sewall Dead.

BOSTON, Dec. 22.—The venerable lawyer, Samuel Edmund Sewall, died in this city Thursday, aged ninety years. Mr. Sewall graduated from Harvard university in 1817, and from the Harvard law school in 1821. He was one of the first to join William Lloyd Garrison in the anti-slavery movement, in which he displayed great activity. He has also been prominent in the efforts to secure for women equal rights of property and person, and the fullest civil and political equality.

John Wentworth's Monument.

CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—The seventy-ton granite monolith to mark the grave of ex-Mayor "Long John" Wentworth, was successfully placed in permanent position at Rose Hill cemetery Thursday. A large number of engineers and architects were among the crowd of spectators. The shaft is the largest single cut stone in America except the Egyptian obelisk, New York.

Fell and Cardiff Matched.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 22.—Jim Fell, the Michigan giant, and Patsy Cardiff made a match Thursday night for a fifteen round contest, Marquis of Queensberry rules, for $500 a side. Two ounce gloves will be used, and the fight will take place within fifty miles of Minneapolis, January 21.

Dynamite Bomb in a Cupola.

LITCHFIELD, Ill., Dec. 22.—Some miscreant threw a dynamite bomb into the cupola of the Litchfield Car and Machine company's foundry Thursday morning. The missile exploded, tearing the cupola to pieces,

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

SATURDAY EVE., DEC. 22, 1888.

JUDGE C. L. LYTLE is spoken of as a Democratic candidate for the Legislature from Nicholas County.

GENERAL HARRISON's cabinet will more than likely be composed largely of millionaires. He was elected by the use of money in pivotal States, and his administration will be run principally by the monied class.

"For the current year the amount of gold shipped from the port of New York to Europe amounted to $25,000,000," says the Louisville Times, "and it is significant that for the twenty-five days between November 21 and December 14, the shipments reached $9,207,035, though we were told that the election of Harrison would bring us all the gold we could handle. Now that the Republican party has again attained power we may expect a savage attack on silver."

We are glad to see that the editor of the Republican has "caught on" to some of the BULLETIN's suggestions in reference to "booming" our city. Months and months ago we urged that the citizens of Maysville should turn their attention more to manufacturing and not so much to merchandising. Our contemporary has taken up that idea of late and is advocating it very ardently. We hope we will keep it up. What we need at present is more factories. The stores will follow later on.

Again, we believe the BULLETIN was the first to suggest the organization of a Board of Trade. We are glad to see our neighbor advocating this also. It will be a move in the right direction. Much can be accomplished to further the interests of our city by a united effort on the part of our citizens, and the organization of a Board will be a step to secure this united effort. "United we stand, divided we fall."

What a Maysville Man is Doing in Cincinnati.

Mr. R. L. Tudor, of Cincinnati, arrived yesterday to spend a day or so here attending to some business matters. Mr. Tudor left Maysville a month or so ago and is now a member of the firm of Butler & Tudor, shoe manufacturers. The firm employs sixty-five hands at present but this number will be slightly increased the first of the new year.

They manufacture ladies' fineshoes, and turn out 1,200 pair every week. "We have no trouble whatever," said Mr. Tudor, "disposing of all our goods. We find a ready sale for them at a handsome profit. We shut down Thursday for the holidays and when we closed we had but ten dozen pair of shoes on hand."

"Our factory is not run on as large a scale as some others but we are doing a good business. The wages we pay run from $7 to $18 a week, the average being about $11 or $12. The hands get their money every Saturday evening. Such factories as this is what Maysville ought to have."

Those who are interested in the welfare of our city will find food for thought in the above. Place the average weekly wages of the employees at $10, and such a factory would pay out $33,800 in wages in one year. Such an enterprise we firmly believe would prove just as profitable here as anywhere else.

A Timely Suggestion.

Editor Bulletin: I have noticed for a long time, in almost every issue, of your valuable DAILY some suggestion with regard to "booming the town." Now, if you will allow me, I think I can make a few simple suggestions, which will, if carried out, go farther towards the improvement of the financial condition of the town, than any ephemeral excitement, produced by a sudden rise of the real estate within its borders. It is this, let every one keep and spend their money at home.

Let every man and woman buy every article of produce and clothing, that is needed for home consumption, in their own town.

We have as good stores of all kinds as any city, dry goods, drug, clothing, millinery, books and stationery, queensware, stoves and tinware, silverware, and jewelry, boots and shoes, hardware.

Let us keep our money in circulation at home, and thus encourage our merchants to keep the best stocks, and enable them by their multiplicity of sales to compete in price with stores in large cities.

Respectfully &c.

A REWARD OFFERED.

The Governor Takes Some Action to Aid in Recapturing Ross, Young and Mullikin.

Governor Buckner has offered a reward for the recapture of Geo. W. Young, John Ross and Walter Mullikin. Judge Coons received notice to that effect yesterday morning.

The reward for Young and Ross is placed at $150 each while that for Mullikin is fixed at $100.

Young and Ross under joint indictment for robbery and Walter Mullikin charged with house-breaking, as will be remembered by our readers, broke jail here on Saturday, December 8th, 1888, and are now at large.

The following is a description of the fugitives: Young is about 23 years old, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches in height, has brown hair, smooth face, with perhaps a slight growth of a light mustache. He is well developed about chest and shoulders and is slightly bow-legged. In walking a slight jerky, up and down motion of shoulders and arms is perceptible. He weighs about 160 pounds and dresses neatly.

Ross is about 33 years old, weighs about 180 pounds, and is about 6 feet in height. His hair is a medium brown, and he wears a blonde mustache. Has tattoo marks on forehead of one of his arms, dresses neatly and is genteel looking.

Mullikin is about 6 feet 3 inches in height and somewhat stoop-shouldered; sandy complexion, smooth face with perhaps stubble beard of sandy color. He dresses and looks like a farm hand.

Another Hitch in the Opening of the Maysville and Big Sandy.

Through trains will not be run over the Maysville and Big Sandy next Monday.

The opening of the road has again been postponed. Time cards had been prepared and most every other preparation made to commence the running of trains from Ashland to Covington on and after the 24th of this month, and due announcement of the proposed opening of the road was made some days ago.

The local agents, however, received notice yesterday that through trains would not be put on Monday. General Agent Honshell sent word that it had been found impracticable to do so.

The cause of the postponement has not been learned. It is intimated that there is some hitch between the Construction Company and the railroad company, but the postponement is probably necessitated by the delay in the completion of the ballasting at the lower end of the route, caused by bad weather of late.

It is not known now when the road will be opened. An effort will be made to run through trains about New Year.

Celebration of the Lifting of the Quarantine.

ARRIVAL OF THE FIRST STEAMER AFTER THE EPIDEMIC

Given Proper Recognition By the Business Men and Citizens of the Lately Stricken City—Appropriate Speeches Made By Both Stay-at-Homes and Refugees—A Creditable Affair.

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 22.—When it was announced that the Clyde line would celebrate the raising of the quarantine by sending here her elegant new steamship Iroquois, the business men here set about at once to give the coming of the first steamship after the epidemic a proper recognition.

After some delay the steamship arrived Thursday morning. She had been met by a committee of citizens six miles down the river and escorted to her dock here. The appearance of the ship in mid-stream was signaled by booming cannon from the docks.

Each gun brought more people until the docks were packed with humanity, notwithstanding the cold, sharp wind which prevailed. Two steamers with brass bands aboard flanked the Iroquois, and amid the booming of cannon the strains of martial music and the huzzas of the people the levathan slowly wended her way up to the dock.

As she drew up to the dock a shout of welcome went up from those ashore, which was responded to by those on the Iroquois. As soon as she was made fast a rush was made to board the new ship. Those who had friends aboard, whom they had not seen for months, were frantic to embrace them. Some laughed while others wept for joy.

In the saloon of the Iroquois five tables, decked with beautiful flowers and covered with choicest viands and richest tableware, had been prepared by Capt. Kemble, and to these, on the captain's invitation, as many of the crowd as could be accommodated repaired.

Speeches were made by several prominent citizens of Jacksonville, including both stay-at-homes and refugees. Though brief, the remarks were all very appropriate. After these the master of the floating palace invited all present to partake of the repast prepared for them, and, amid good humor and cheers, many took seats at the table, while others strolled over and inspected the ship. The affair was creditable to all concerned.

My Poor Back!

That "poor back" is held responsible for more than its share of the sufferings of mankind. If your dog bites a man who kicks it, do you blame the dog? On the same principle the kidneys utter their protest against nervousness, impure blood, and resulting constipation. These force them to do extraordinary work in ridding the system of the poisons which are the result of effete matter retained in the blood. Then the sufferer says the back aches; the kidneys are diseased. "Not yet;" but they will be unless the nerves are strengthened, the blood purified, and the constipation removed. These are the causes of kidney troubles, and Paine's Celery Compound removes them quickly. With its tonic, purifying, and laxative effect, it also strengthens the weak kidneys, making it almost infallible in curing all diseases of the nerves and kidneys. If your hopes of cure have not been realized, try Paine's Celery Compound; it gives perfect health to all who complain of "their poor backs." Price $1.00.
